DAY 2 | Glories of ancient Athens

Ascend the rocky outcrop that towers over Athens to tour the Acropolis including the iconic Parthenon and the Erechtheion. Visit the Acropolis Museum and enjoy a free afternoon. This evening, we'll take you to a performance at the outstanding, new Stavros Niarchos Cultural Center – subject to the evolving performance schedule. MEALS B

DAY 3 | Temple of Apollo at Delphi

Journey into the mountain landscapes of the storied Attica Peninsula to Delphi, set on a ridge in the shadow of Mt. Parnassus. Exploring some of the most amazing sites of the ancient world, your tour includes the Sacred Way and Temple of Apollo. Then visit the Delphi Archaeological Museum and check in to the Hotel Kastalia. MEALS B+L

DAY 4 | Monasteries in the sky

Amidst the breathtaking landscapes of Meteora, medieval monks built 24 monasteries high atop pinnacles of rock. Six remain active and today you'll visit St. Stefan, built in the 15th century with sweeping views high above the plains of Kalambaka. This is one of only two monasteries where nuns still reside, and engaging with them adds a rich spiritual dimension to your visit. Continue to the Hotel Xenia in Volos. MEALS B+L+D

DAY 5 | Untouched villages of Pelion

As in ancient times, the hills of Pelion are deeply forested with chestnut, beech, olive and fruit groves. Its villages, too, exude a timeless air and you'll spend this day immersed in their charms. Take in the views from Makrinita, perched on a hillside, and admire the fine mosaics of the 18th-century church in Milies. In Vyzitsa, women of the village will prepare a traditional Greek meal exclusively for our group. Then explore its cobblestone streets and fine old mansions at your own pace before returning to our hotel in Volos. MEALS B+L

DAY 6 | The ancient sites of Volos

Explore the Neolithic remains at Dimini where scholars have discovered evidence of a surprisingly sophisticated stone age community. A Mycenaean settlement that emerged later might have been the fabled city of Jason – who went in search of the Golden Fleece. A tour of the Archaeological Museum deepens your understanding of the region's ancient history. End your day with our exclusive visit to the Volos Lyceum, where the staff will lead a private tour of the local costumes on display. MEALS B+L

DAY 7 | Across the seas to Skiathos

Travel across the blue waters of the Pagasetic Gulf and into the Aegean to idyllic Skiathos, one of the Sporades Islands. On arrival, check in to the Hotel Elivi. MEALS B+L

DAY 8 | An idyllic Greek island

Experience the delights of Skiathos as you explore the labyrinthine alleys of Old Town with our guide and visit the hillside Evangelistria Monastery, founded in the 1700's. Enjoy a free afternoon. MEALS B+L

DAY 9 | A day on Skopelos

If there's a bit of déjà vu as you step off the ferry on this nearby island, perhaps it's because you recognize it from the hit movie Mama Mia. But without the film crews and celebrities, it's a timeless and idyllic place, filled with ancient frescoed churches which you'll visit with our guide. You'll also tour the folklore museum and a 17th-century nunnery set on a hill amidst the virgin pine forests. Return to Skiathos for a free evening. MEALS B+L
