

Enhance Your Stay in Munich with Additional Privately Guided Sightseeing

Munich Food Tour + Viktualienmarkt: Discover Munich through its beloved culinary traditions as you explore the lively Viktualienmarkt on this walking tour with your private guide. Along the way, you'll uncover the meaning of important Bavarian foodie terms like Brezn, Obazda, Leberkäse, and Helles while selecting ingredients for a traditional Brotzeit. Literally translating to "Bread Time," this midmorning snack is a beloved Bavarian tradition. Then, embrace one of Munich's most cherished pleasures: settling into a beer garden with your beverage to enjoy the local delicacies you've purchased. It's a deliciously unique way to experience Munich, offering a taste of the city's food culture, convivial spirit, and everyday traditions. Starting from Marienplatz and lasting 3 to 3.5 hours, this tour includes different sausages and cheeses along with bread or pretzel. In case of bad weather, a traditional tavern will be substituted for the beer garden and food inclusions may vary.

Oktoberfest Walking Tour: Experience one of Germany's most beloved festivals like a local as you enjoy Oktoberfest alongside your professional private guide—a resident who truly understands the history, traditions, customs, and cultural nuances of this world-famous celebration. At the lively Theresienwiese Oktoberfest grounds, your guide will be at your side so you can get a genuine feel for how locals experience this much-anticipated annual event. Depending on the day's specific events and crowds, your guide will lead you through the festival grounds, pointing out major beer tents, traditional attractions, and iconic rides while sharing stories and insights. It's an engaging introduction to the heart and spirit of Oktoberfest, with the freedom to continue exploring independently after your tour. Lasting approximately 5 hours and starting from your hotel, you'll travel to the festival using public transportation like a local. Table or seat reservations are not included; food and beverages are at your own expense.

Löwenbräu Brewery Tour + Beer Tasting: Go behind the scenes at Munich's legendary Löwenbräu Brewery and discover the time-honored craft of Bavarian brewing. Your guided tour takes you into the brewhouse, fermentation and storage cellars, and bottling facilities, offering fascinating insight into both traditional and modern brewing techniques. Along the way, learn about Löwenbräu's long heritage and the role that brewing has played in Munich's culture and identity, with every beer produced according to the renowned Bavarian Purity Law. The experience concludes with a tasting of two classic Löwenbräu beers, providing the perfect opportunity to appreciate the craftsmanship and traditions you've just discovered. Lasting approximately 2 hours, this tour includes two beer samples. Minimum age is 16. Not available on Sundays, public holidays, or during Oktoberfest.

Private Dachau Memorial Site Tour: Visit the Dachau Memorial Site, opened by the Nazi regime in 1933 as its first concentration camp; with a private driver and guide, this is a respectful, unhurried exploration of this pivotal and difficult chapter in European history. The preserved grounds, original structures, and reconstructed barracks offer a direct encounter with the camp's history, while the museum and exhibitions provide context and insight into the experiences of those imprisoned here. Today, Dachau serves as a memorial and a place of education—a reminder of where intolerance and persecution can lead. With time to move through the site at your own pace, this is a sobering visit that invites quiet reflection and a fuller understanding of the history that shaped modern Germany. Lasting approximately 4 hours, this private tour includes roundtrip chauffeured transportation with your driver and guide. The minimum age is 13. Appropriate attire is requested out of respect for the dignity of the memorial site.

Private Bavarian Mountains Excursion with Driver + Guide: Escape into the spectacular Bavarian Alps on a privately guided journey through some of southern Germany's most beautiful mountain scenery. Ride by cable car to Herzogstand, once a favorite hunting ground of the Bavarian kings, and take in breathtaking views across the Alps and the shimmering waters of Lake Walchensee. Continue to the charming mountain resort of Garmisch-Partenkirchen, where you'll have time to lunch on your own and experience its historic Old Town, beloved for its Bavarian-style homes and inviting shops. Your excursion continues to the remarkable Partnach Gorge, carved through the mountains by the Partnach River over thousands of years. Follow the path through the narrow gorge, where towering rock walls, rushing water, and the surrounding Alpine landscape create an unforgettable encounter with Bavaria's natural beauty. This full-day excursion includes the Herzogstand cable car and entrance to Partnach Gorge. Appropriate footwear and outdoor clothing are recommended. Itinerary subject to local weather conditions.

Guided Hike—Alpine Village Explorer: Leave the city behind on this refreshing journey into the Bavarian countryside, traveling by First Class rail along a scenic stretch of the German Alpine Road. Stepping off the train in Bayrischzell with your private Alpine guide, you'll follow a picturesque trail through the surrounding landscape, crossing bridges, and passing waterfalls and tranquil rock pools before pausing at a popular local spot with beautiful views across Bavaria's rolling hills. After the hike, you might choose to visit a Kneipp facility for some cold-water hydrotherapy. Following 19th-century practices pioneered by a Bavarian priest, you can walk through the icy mountain water for a bracing taste of a time-honored regional wellness tradition. Before the return rail journey to Munich, you'll have time to stroll through Bayrischzell, where historic houses nestle beneath the imposing Wendelstein mountain. Starting from Munich Central Station, this 7-hour excursion includes roundtrip First Class rail tickets and a guided hike of approximately 4 km (2.5 miles) with an elevation gain of about 230 m (755 feet). Comfortable walking shoes with good traction and layered outdoor clothing are recommended. Minimum age is 10.

Private Neuschwanstein Castle Tour with Driver + Guide: Journey into the Bavarian Alps to discover Neuschwanstein Castle, the extraordinary hilltop palace that inspired generations of fairytale imagery. Traveling comfortably in a chauffeured vehicle with your own personal guide eager to share their knowledge of the region, you'll pass through the scenic Bavarian countryside/ Arriving into the foothills of the Alps, you'll glimpse the castle rising dramatically above forests, lakes, and mountain valleys. Learn about the fascinating life and vision of King Ludwig II as you explore his castle's richly decorated interiors on a guided visit conducted by castle staff. Outside, take in breathtaking views over the surrounding landscape and the historic town of Füssen. With time to enjoy lunch on your own at a local restaurant, this memorable excursion combines magnificent scenery, royal history, and one of Bavaria's most iconic landmarks. This approximately 8-hour excursion includes admission and a guided interior visit to Neuschwanstein Castle. The walk from the parking lot to the castle takes approximately 30 minutes and involves considerable walking.

Private Herrenchiemsee Palace Tour with Driver + Guide: Delight in one of Bavaria's most remarkable royal treasures on a chauffeured excursion to Herrenchiemsee, the magnificent palace built by King Ludwig II on an island in Chiemsee, Bavaria's largest lake. Journey through the Bavarian countryside with your personal car, driver, and guide before crossing the lake by boat to Herreninsel. Go ashore on the island, where a short walk through the gardens leads to Ludwig II's extraordinary palace, inspired by Versailles. During your visit, explore the lavish interiors and learn about the king's vision and the fascinating history of his unfinished masterpiece. Afterward, enjoy time to savor the peaceful island setting, perhaps over lunch on your own at the historic former monastery. If time permits, you may also cross to nearby Fraueninsel, another of Chiemsee's picturesque islands. Lasting about 8 hours, this excursion includes boat transportation and admission to Herrenchiemsee Palace, with a guided interior visit conducted by palace staff. Your private guide will accompany you throughout the excursion but cannot enter the palace with you.

Private Neuschwanstein + Linderhof Palaces Tour with Driver + Guide: Discover two extraordinary chapters of King Ludwig II's royal legacy on a privately guided journey through the Bavarian Alps. At Neuschwanstein, admire the turreted castle's spectacular mountain setting, take in the postcard-perfect views from the historic Marienbrücke bridge, and explore the lavish interior on a guided visit conducted by castle staff. Then continue to Linderhof, Ludwig's intimate royal retreat, where an elegant palace and beautifully landscaped gardens reflect the king's distinctive vision and fascination with grandeur. Between palace visits, you'll have time to enjoy lunch on your own and perhaps some souvenir shopping. Depending on the day's schedule, your return journey may also include a visit to the Wieskirche, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, or the charming village of Oberammergau, famous for its Passion Play. This approximately 10-hour excursion includes admission and guided interior visits to both palaces, conducted by palace staff. Please note that considerable walking is involved.

Private Rothenburg Tour + Romantic Road with Driver Guide: Journey through the picturesque heart of southern Germany along the celebrated Romantic Road, where medieval heritage and beautiful countryside unfold around every turn. Begin at Harburg Castle, one of Southern Germany's oldest and best-preserved fortress complexes, before continuing through captivating landscapes punctuated by charming historic towns. Your destination is Rothenburg ob der Tauber, renowned for its beautifully preserved medieval architecture. Wander its storybook streets lined with half-timbered houses, explore the historic city walls, and browse inviting shops. There will also be time for lunch on your own before returning to Munich. The journey itself is an integral part of today's experience, including the drive through the Hallertau, where your driver guide can share insight into the world's largest hop-growing region. This approximately 11-hour excursion includes roundtrip chauffeured transportation from your hotel in Munich. Admission to Harburg Castle is included from April to October when the site is open.
