OUR JOURNEY

DAY 1 | Welcome to Louisville

On arrival, you'll be escorted to the Brown Hotel. Tonight's dinner features The Hot Brown, a culinary legend created here in 1926. MEALS D

DAY 2 | A Taste of Louisville

This morning's touring begins on a walking tour of Churchill Downs with VIP access to exclusive areas. We'll continue on to Butchertown, a charming district that is one of Louisville's oldest neighborhoods, with roots in the early 1800's. After perusing the local shops of the Butchertown Market, we'll enjoy fresh, innovative New American fare for lunch at the Butchertown Grocery before a mixology class at Copper & Kings, a craft distillery gaining fame for its fine brandies. Our day will finish at the Frazier History Museum, an affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution, with the evening free. MEALS B+L

DAY 3 | Racing at Churchill Downs

Today begins with a private trolley tour of Old Louisville offering the nation's largest collection of Victorian mansions. Then it's off to Louisville's historic Whiskey Row where we'll visit the Evans Williams Distillery before a visit to the Old Forester Distillery, home of the first bottled bourbon, and a demonstration of how their barrels are as finely handcrafted now as they were in the late 19th century.

We'll return to the Brown Hotel before Twilight Racing at iconic Churchill Downs followed by dinner at legendary Matt Winn's Steakhouse overlooking the track. MEALS B+D

DAY 4 | Central Kentucky

Enjoy this morning's scenic drive into Central Kentucky where our visit at the renowned Maker's Mark Distillery ends with dipping your own bottle of bourbon into their signature red wax. After lunch at the The Kitchen & Bar at Bardstown Bourbon Co. to enjoy its fine homemade Southern fare, you'll tour My Old Kentucky Home. Once the centerpiece of a 1,300-acre plantation, this handsome Federal-style mansion is now a renowned house museum filled with antiques, period art and finely restored architectural details. We'll even learn how to make the perfect Mint Julep. Then explore the history of Kentucky's Shaker community and sit down to a delightful garden-to-table dinner at Shaker Village. We'll continue to Lexington and check in to the new Origin Hotel for a 3-night stay. MEALS B+L+D

DAY 5 | Welcome to Horse Country

Keeneland is not just a world-class race course, it's also the leading Thoroughbred auction house; get an insider's look into this rarefied world on our behind-the-scenes tour. Afterwards, you'll explore the Lexington Distillery District, a 25 acre entertainment district on the grounds of the historic James E. Pepper Distillery, a National Historic Landmark. We'll move on to visit Justin's House of Bourbon, famed for its collection of rare spirits. Then create your own custom blend of bourbon at a family-owned distillery. Tonight, enjoy a unique farm-to-table, bourbon-themed dining experience at the Holly Hill Inn. MEALS B+D

DAY 6 | Kentucky Bluegrass

Visit the Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Farm to learn about their unique approach to caring for champion horses whose racing days have come to an end. Savor the farm-fresh cuisine of Castle Farms and tour the lavish halls and gardens of the Kentucky Castle. This afternoon, enjoy a private tour at one of Kentucky's renowned Thoroughbred farms. Tonight, you'll enjoy a magical twilight tour of the picturesque Sun Valley Farm; having dinner with the owners offers a chance to learn more about their Thoroughbred mares. MEALS B+L+D

DAY 7 | Depart Lexington

We take you to the airport today for your homeward flight. MEAL B
