

Enhance Your Stay in Vienna with Additional Privately Guided Sightseeing

Private Walking Tour – Vienna's Jewish Heritage: Explore the historic heart of Vienna on a guided walk through sites central to the city's Jewish life, past and present. Vienna was once home to one of Europe's most vibrant Jewish communities, whose members shaped the city's intellectual, artistic, and cultural life for centuries before the devastation of the Holocaust. Your guide will trace this rich and complex history, from the medieval Jewish quarter around Judenplatz to the flourishing community of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, sharing stories of resilience, achievement, and loss along the way. The walk reveals synagogues, memorials, and historic landmarks that speak to Vienna's Jewish heritage and its enduring presence in the city today. The tour concludes at the Jewish Museum Vienna, where you're welcome to continue exploring at your own pace. This 3-hour walking tour includes a ticket valid for admission to both Jewish Museum locations, at Judenplatz and Dorotheergasse, valid for seven days. Due to local restrictions, your guide is unable to accompany you within the museum buildings.

Private Naschmarkt Culinary Walking Tour: Experience Vienna's liveliest and most popular market on a guided walk through the city to visit the Naschmarkt. This beloved institution dates back to the sixteenth century, when farmers first gathered to sell milk and produce along the Wien River. Today it's a vibrant kaleidoscope of sweet and savory, fresh and cured, exotic and local flavors, spanning hundreds of stalls and family-run stands. Your guide will lead you through the market's colorful offerings, pausing for tastings that might include falafel and hummus, a small antipasti plate, oysters, and sweets, while sharing stories, history, and insider tips along the way. This tour includes tastings at multiple stalls, a guided walk through the market, and a keepsake tasting spoon. Drinks, personal expenses, and hotel transfers are not included.

Private Vienna City Tour with Giant Ferris Wheel Ride: Discover Vienna's most iconic landmarks and picturesque districts with your own private guide. Traveling comfortably in a chauffeured vehicle, you'll see celebrated sights, including the Hofburg Palace, Vienna State Opera, St. Stephen's Cathedral, and Belvedere Palace, while your engaging guide brings the city's history, culture, and architecture to life. The highlight of the day is a ride aboard the Wiener Riesenrad, Vienna's Giant Ferris Wheel. Built in 1897 to mark Emperor Franz Joseph I's Golden Jubilee, it once ranked among the tallest Ferris wheels in the world and remains one of Vienna's most beloved landmarks. From its vintage cabins, enjoy sweeping views across the city's rooftops, parks, and the Danube River beyond. This private 3-hour tour includes roundtrip chauffeured transportation from your hotel and one ride on the Giant Ferris Wheel.

Private Vienna City Tour + Traditional Kaffeehaus: With a chauffeured vehicle and your own personal guide, this tour promises a relaxed and immersive introduction to Austria's capital. Discover the city's grand boulevards, elegant districts, and iconic imperial landmarks as your guide shares stories and insights into the Habsburgs, Vienna's musical legacy, and the culture that shaped this storied city. After your sightseeing, settle into a traditional Viennese Kaffeehaus, an institution recognized by UNESCO as part of Austria's intangible cultural heritage, where marble tables, velvet banquettes, and newspapers on wooden racks preserve a tradition dating back centuries. Savor a hot beverage and a slice of classic Viennese cake, like the Sachertorte or Apfelstrudel, as you indulge in the relaxed pace of café life. Lasting approximately 4 hours, this private tour includes roundtrip chauffeured transportation from your hotel and a Kaffeehaus visit with one hot drink and a piece of cake.

Private Southern Vienna Woods Tour with Heiligenkreuz Abbey + Mayerling: Escape into the Vienna Woods, a scenic region of rolling forests, valleys, and vineyards, on a chauffeured journey with your driver and personal guide. Your first stop is Heiligenkreuz Abbey; founded in 1133 and still home to an active community of monks, this is one of the world's oldest continuously occupied Cistercian monasteries. Enhanced by the historical knowledge and insights of your guide, you'll wander its beautifully preserved cloisters and Romanesque-Gothic church. Continue to Mayerling, once an imperial hunting lodge and the site of a tragic 1889 event that has come to be known as the Mayerling Incident. Claiming the lives of Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria and his young mistress, Mary Vetsera, this apparent murder-suicide shocked the Habsburg dynasty and altered the course of Austrian history. The lodge was later transformed into a Carmelite convent and memorial chapel in the prince's memory. This 4-hour privately guided tour includes roundtrip chauffeured transportation from your hotel.

Private Romantic Danube Valley Tour with Melk Abbey: Journey with your private driver and guide through the Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage region and one of Austria's most picturesque landscapes. Traveling along the Danube River, you'll discover terraced vineyards, medieval ruins, and storybook villages that make this one of the most enchanting corners of Europe. The highlight of the day is a visit to Melk Abbey, a resplendent Baroque monastery perched dramatically above the river; founded in 1089 and rebuilt in its current opulent form in the early eighteenth century, the abbey remains an active Benedictine community. Explore its magnificent library, ornate church, and grand halls on a guided tour, taking in centuries of art, learning, and faith. Along the way, pause at scenic viewpoints over the vineyards and riverside villages that have long defined the Wachau's character and charm. Lasting approximately 8 hours, this private tour includes roundtrip chauffeured transportation from Vienna and a group tour of Melk Abbey with an English-speaking staff guide.

Private Tour to Graz with Driver-Guide: Travel south from Vienna to Graz, Austria's second-largest city, with your professional driver-guide sharing insights along the scenic route. Graz flourished for centuries as a border stronghold against Ottoman incursions before evolving into a refined university town and cultural center. Its beautifully preserved Old Town, one of the largest and best-preserved in Central Europe, is recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. Upon arrival, enjoy free time to wander its cobbled lanes and take in landmarks like the Schlossberg clock tower and Renaissance-era Landhaus courtyard. You can even cross the Mur River via the Murinsel, a striking floating platform that connects the opposite riverbanks and houses a café and amphitheater. You might also explore local cafés and boutiques, or simply stroll along inviting streets alive with the creative, youthful spirit of the city's large student population. If you prefer exploring with a professional guide, you can opt for an available 2-hour tour with a Graz-based guide who is deeply knowledgeable about the city's history and culture. This 8-hour excursion includes roundtrip chauffeured transfers from Vienna with an English-speaking driver-guide.

Viennese Strudel Baking Workshop: Discover the art of Viennese apple strudel in this hands-on workshop rooted in a culinary tradition that traces back to the Ottoman-influenced pastries of the Habsburg Empire, when strudel first became a beloved staple of Austrian home kitchens. Guided by an expert baker, you'll learn to prepare the dough from scratch, select the best apples for the filling, and master the storied technique of stretching the dough paper-thin, traditionally said to be thin enough to read a newspaper through. Along the way, pick up practical tips on choosing the right flour and preventing tears, making this centuries-old craft far more approachable than it seems. Finally, enjoy your warm strudel fresh from the oven, served with vanilla cream. This workshop takes place at Kruste & Krume Brotbackatelier in Vienna, with morning sessions Monday through Friday and an afternoon session on Saturday.
